

REMARKS

The prior art cited by the Examiner in the rejections has been carefully reviewed. In response to the section 112 rejections, the claims have been amended to recite only silicone oils. There is no further reference to a "mineral oil" as being inclusive of "silicone oil."

The section 102 and 103 rejections have been addressed by amending the broader claims to recite the specific mass compositions of the formulation. With these limitations, the invention as claimed is believed to be novel and non-obvious over the prior art. Accordingly, the Applicant hereby requests that the Examiner reconsider the pending claims.

Respectfully submitted this 3 day of Oct, 2005.
